

Pedal Power for the Hospice Terms and Conditions

The Terms of Conditions are for Participants taking part in Pedal Power for the Hospice Challenge virtually. Completion of an entry form or purchase of an entry by every Participant acknowledges acceptance of these Terms and Conditions by the Participant.

Participant means you, the person taking part.

The Event means the Pedal Power for the Hospice Challenge.

1. By entering the Event the Participant automatically accepts our terms & conditions.
2. Participating in the Event is a hazardous activity. Each Participant acknowledges that there is an inherent risk of physical injury that cannot be eliminated completely, including but not limited to an above-average risk of death and/or serious injury. Knowing this, each Participant voluntarily assumes all of the risks of participating in the Event, including event attire and takes full responsibility for any and all damages, liabilities, losses, or expenses incurred as a result of their participation.
3. Participants are advised to seek medical advice to participate in the Event if you are pregnant.
4. The Participant is fully responsible for their actions whilst participating in the Event. Hospice of the Valleys does not accept responsibility for the actions of the Participant nor the consequences of such actions.
5. The Event involves a level of sustained physical activity. Each Participant, upon signing the registration form or purchasing a ticket, agrees that they are physically and mentally capable of completing the Event.
6. Participants making the decision to take part must be satisfied that this activity is suitable for them as individuals. Hospice of the Valleys cannot be held accountable for aggravation to illness or injury sustained due to participation in this activity. Participants are recommended to seek advice from their medical practitioner prior to taking part in this Event, and make provisions to ensure their safe participation.
7. Each Participant agrees to abide by the Event rules.
8. The Participant also specifically agrees to obey all civil and criminal laws, including traffic laws and regulations.
9. For health and safety reasons you must not participate and use any personal entertainment listening devices whilst out on the roads. This is particularly important for you to be aware of your immediate surroundings at all times.
10. Each Participant agrees to exhibit appropriate behaviour at all times; demonstrate respect for all people, equipment and facilities; and participate with a cooperative and positive attitude.
11. Hospice of the Valleys reserve the right, at its absolute discretion, to refuse to allow any participation that may cause offence or injury to the Participant, other Participants or community. This includes the wearing of any clothing or visual messages that may cause offence to others. Failure to comply with any instruction from Event officials will result in ejection from the Event and possible intervention of Gwent Police.
12. Each Participant will be fully responsible for any fees or costs incurred or arising from an accident either involving or caused by them. This includes, but is not exclusive to, fees from Police, Air Ambulance, Fire and Rescue and the Ambulance service in and outside the United Kingdom. If the situation arises that you are not capable of making the decision to call the emergency services, the - Participant agrees that a member of Hospice of the Valleys or a member of the public may call for them. In this situation, the Participant still accepts the costs and consequences of such actions.

13. Hospice of the Valleys does not provide any insurance, whether life or medical or liability, for any illness, accident, injury, death, loss or damage that may arise in connection to the Event. Participants shall be responsible for arranging their own suitable and adequate insurance protection to cover their participation in the Event, including without limitation cover:
- a) for material loss/damage to any equipment they may use in the Event or personal property (including clothing);
  - b) any loss or damage they may cause to a third party;
  - c) sickness; or
  - d) negligence of any party.
  - e) any accident or injury caused by an Participant's actions shall be the responsibility of that Participant.
