Fundraising Hints and Tips

Raise money online – it's easy to set up an online fundraising page at Just Giving. Shoot for a target – aim high and tell the world. Why not take a cheeky selfie and upload to your page - #everyone loves a selfie.

Corporate Sponsorship – Ask your company to boost your sponsorship or even match what you have raised! Have a swear box for colleagues and friends, arrange a cake sale, non school/work uniform day – all great ideas.

Bake sale

Get the kettle on and enjoy some baked treats. Every munch, crunch and yum will help you raise lots of money for a great cause.

Sponsorship Forms

Give copies of the attached sponsorship form to family and friends – tell everyone what you are doing, what's your story, why you're fundraising? Start with a nice large sponsored amount at the top to lead by example. Put it on social media.

Gift Aid It

Don't forget to Gift Aid It – it means an extra 25p for every £1 sponsored and it won't cost you or your sponsors a penny! Please ensure the sponsor completes the forms, the form cannot have all the same handwriting.

Hold a raffle/event – Hold a raffle in your work place, school, college. Arrange a quiz -Great fun and raise a lot of money.

Put on a show

Make a song and dance of your fundraising. Whatever your talent, you can strut your stuff and get some serious sponsorship.

Do a dare

Dare to do something different. Are you brave enough to take on some hair-raising fundraising? Use your imagination and take on a challenge.

SportING tournament

Set yourself a challenge and smash it. You can get out, get active and have your own fundraising adventure. Can you arrange a sports sweepstake?

Throw a party

Maybe you could throw a bash to raise some cash? Whether your friends like films or food, there are good times ahead - all in aid of a good cause.

Post event

Remember it's not over until it's over! – donations can still come in after the event, so make sure you follow up, tell people how amazing you done.
